Modelithics Expands TACTRON Sales Region to Include Italy and France

Tampa, Florida (December 10, 2014) – Modelithics announces an expansion of the partnership with TACTRON ELEKTRONIK GmbH in Martinsried, Germany as a reseller for Modelithics library sales and services. TACTRON, currently a reseller for Modelithics in Germany, Switzerland and Austria, will now offer the same excellent reseller representation in Italy and France. Georg Schmidt, President of TACTRON says: “We are very proud to promote and sell the Modelithics libraries in these countries. We represent a number of Modelithics Vendor Partners (MVP’s) and the software represents a very good fit for servicing customers interested in improving their simulation results. In addition, it helps the sales of our other lines, in that we can give our customers a tool that improves efficiency of popular RF design software.” Larry Dunleavy, CEO of Modelithics, Inc. said: “TACTRON has provided efficient and effective support in their current region, so we are pleased to offer this same exceptional customer-centric service to design groups and supplier companies in Italy and France.”
